100% Unconditional Money Back Guarantee

If you dislike the product you receive for any reason, just return it for a full credit, replacement or refund (your choice). We really like the things we sell and are confident that you will too. Feel free to experiment. Try things you are not sure of. Return postage is all you will be responsible for if it does not work out. To make a return you must call or write us. Just let us know that you will be returning merchandise in it's original packaging and tell us how you would like us to handle the return. We will gladly follow your instructions, no questions asked. You will be given a return authorization number which must accompany your return. This guarantee is valid for orders in the continental United States only.
